

Pavo HealthBoost

A natural vitality supplement for every horse

Sometimes, your horse feels off-colour, for example after an illness, strenuous training sessions or when changing its coat. In these situations, Pavo HealthBoost strongly supports the immune system and also supplies extra energy. This product promotes a healthy balance in the intestines, contains all important vitamins, minerals and trace-elements and is rich in quickly-available energy. Pavo HealthBoost is especially suitable for veteran horses and all horses that lack fitness – whatever the cause.
